I understand that joining the association implies a commitment to:

- actively participating in and contributing to the association's meetings and activities;
- promoting the global transition to natural refrigerants and their use in energy efficient, carbon-neutral refrigeration, heating and cooling systems;
- readily sharing non-commercially sensitive technical information and data with members and external stakeholders (where agreed by the information provider and the members), in particular in communication with the supply chain;
- contributing to the costs of the association and its secretariat with yearly fees, both of which are determined by the general assembly.
